Thank you for reading my email.

This provides some context for where we stand.....

<http://www.workforceatm.org/sections/pdf/2009/LegislativeUIModChartMay29.pdf>

we would be among the truly phillistine states....

I would also like to see a temporary 1 cent rise in the sales tax, and less pain distributed to state workers.

How about the realtors, brokers, appraisers, investment bankers that put us in this hole....can we at least have pay per view tortures of these people.

Mr. Robinson,

Thank you for your information and comments on SB1568 SD2 HD1, RELATING TO UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE. The Governor appreciates hearing from members of the public. While the volume of mail received precludes her from responding individually, please know that your email message was received and read. The Governor currently has over 100 legislative proposals before her for consideration from this past legislative session. She has until July 15th to make decisions about each of these pending bills. Your comments will be part of the material she reviews.

Thank you for taking the time to send us your comments and for contributing to the decision-making process.

Hello,

Just a brief note in strong support of this bill before you now which will "trigger" HI under DOL rules for Extended Benefit for an addtional 13 weeks of UI for the unemployed here. SB1568 codifies 1/3 of the required language under ARRA, the other 2/3 already being in place. There is approximately 30 million dollars at the table for HI's UI fund: our
